

Joann Broughton Bio

Joann has been a licensed realtor since 1993 and specializes in residential real estate. She is part of the Joann Broughton Team at RE/MAX Northwest Realtors where she is the Listing Specialist on the team.

When her family was relocated to Houston in 1991 through her husband's employer, she decided to get her real estate license to help other families with the relocation process and found great pleasure in doing so.

Joann is also a licensed Instructor at Champions School of Real Estate where she shares her passion for real estate with her students.

Joann has been married to her husband Brink for 27 years. They have 2 sons, Adam, a recent Texas Tech graduate and Andrew a junior in high school. When she is not selling real estate or teaching she enjoys traveling with her family, reading and cooking for her friends.
