

Kimberly Williams Bio

Kimberly Williams is native Houstonian, and Broker Owner of RE/MAX ALLSTARS. A veteran of the Northwest Houston corridor; representing new home sales, new construction and resale homes transactions. Kimberly is an established Real Estate Broker specializing in residential real estate including buyer representative, foreclosure properties, new homes and listings specialist

Eagerly embracing the designated RE/MAX beneficiary Children's Miracle Network®, RE/MAX Allstars has already begun their firm's legacy of charitable giving, helping neighboring RE/MAX Platinum in their annual charity golf tournament benefiting seriously ill and injured children.

Native Houstonian Kimberly met her husband Jermaine Williams at the University of Houston, where Jermaine parleyed his collegiate football scholarship into an NFL career with the Oakland Raiders and Kansas City Chiefs. With three young children, 2 sons and 1 daughter, Kimberly stay busy with interests away from the office focus on community and children's activities & welfare. Kimberly is a loving mom and spends many weekend with her children attending little league games.