Looking for a property that can serve as your residence, business, and animal hub near the city? Look no further! This property covers over 5 acres without any restrictions and includes various structures. These structures consist of a main home that resembles a hill county retreat, a guest house, a warehouse garage with 3 overhead doors, a 6 horse stable, active dog kennels and runs, and a commercial office space with a separate entrance. Moreover, two separate commercial buildings are present on the property, along with covered carports and storage at the back. The property is equipped with a well and 5 commercial septic systems, and you can easily accommodate up to 6 horses. Although city utilities are not yet connected, they are available. Additionally, you will have easy access to Highway 290 and the Beltway.
