4 BEDS, 3 FULL BATH(S)

Welcome to the 1882 Menard-Ganter House, a Texas historically recognized landmark, rich in architectural character defined by its Eastlake detailing. Inside, the residence offers 4 bedrooms and 3 full baths, with an expansive main level designed for both formal and everyday living. Three of the bedrooms offer attached baths. The primary suite is conveniently located on the first floor and features built-in storage and a spacious bath with an accessible shower. Original elements remain throughout, including the marble fireplace mantel, butler's pantry, tin ceiling in the kitchen, and beautifully preserved windows, flooring, trimwork, and pocket doors. The oversized front porch overlooks one of the East End Historic District's most charming streets, while the detached garage provides ample space for storage or a workshop, and low maintenance yard. A rare opportunity to own a historically significant home with the added benefit of first-floor living.
