Land ownership opportunity for this property that is over 7 acres of undeveloped land. The location is a ideal if you seek a country get away but still within a 20 minute driving distance from city amenities. The cow pasture across the street makes it feel like you are in the country. This property is not in a Home Owners Association nor does it have the City of San Antonio restrictions. There is opportunity to develop this land as one sees fit with minimal restrictions. The land itself is flat with vegetation.
