4 BEDS, 3 FULL BATH(S)

Perched just below the highest point in Bandera County, this stunning Satterwhite log home captures sweeping, unobstructed Hill Country views that feel truly million-dollar. Thoughtfully positioned to take full advantage of its setting, the home is wrapped in over 2,000 square feet of porches—including a wraparound main-level porch and detached walk-out basement—creating endless opportunities to soak in the scenery, sunrise to sunset. The main level features two bedrooms and two full baths, anchored by a light-filled living area with walls of windows and sliding glass doors that blur the line between indoors and out. Every bedroom on both levels, as well as the living rooms, open directly to the outdoors through sliding glass doors, flooding the home with natural light and views in every direction. Craftsmanship shines throughout with beetle-kill pine cabinetry, solid wood doors, and pecan floors milled in Lipan. The kitchen is a showstopper with a walnut river island, gas cooking, and
