750 LASSMAN ROAD, GOLIAD, TX 77963

Beautiful 19.3-acre tract located on Lassman Road in Goliad County offering the perfect blend of privacy, nature, and usability. This property features large, mature hardwood trees, scenic views, and borders an active creek that attracts abundant wildlife including deer, turkey, and hogs – making it an excellent hunting or recreational property. With a great mix of open ground and wooded cover, this tract is ideal for a homesite, weekend getaway, running cattle, horses, or simply enjoying quiet country living. The mature trees provide shade and character, while the natural layout offers seclusion without feeling isolated. Whether you're looking to build, hunt, ranch, or invest in Texas land, this property has the location, beauty, and potential to fit your vision. Additional acreage available.
