SINGLE-FAMILY , 3 FULL BATH(S)

A rare opportunity to own a true piece of Texas history. This remarkable 100-acre property features a Spanish Colonial-style barn dating to the 1700s with a standing seam metal roof, plus a pole barn, cattle pens, and horse stalls. The land offers multiple water wells, an outdoor arena, a stocked pond, river frontage, and a bluff with sweeping views of the San Antonio skyline. Towering live oaks, perimeter ranch fencing, multiple gated entrances, and paved road frontage sit just miles from the interstate. A stone pool quarried on-site and a charming guest house with loft, kitchen, and living quarters add appeal. The masonry main home—among the first locally with indoor plumbing—features original wood floors, multiple living and dining areas, fireplaces, and a new metal roof, ready for restoration. Rich in history and character, this estate blends heritage and potential.
